

Dear Author:

Greetings from McFarland! Information about your book has been added to McFarland's online catalog and we invite you to take a look. (Click on the link pasted in below.)

(Link will appear here.)

If you spot a factual error—for example you've changed positions and your bio needs updating—no worries; just tell us about it. At this still-early stage of the book, corrections should be forwarded to me at khamby@mcfarlandpub.com. Corrections of errors will follow shortly on the website.

You are welcome to share the book's webpage with prospective readers and other interested folks. We encourage you to mention your book—include the link when in an online environment—in all of your bylines (for journal articles, etc.). Consider including in your (auto) email signature a brief mention of your book and a link to the book within McFarland's online catalog. Likewise, if you are making posts to discussion forums and blogs, consider an auto signature that mentions the book and includes the link.

Some authors are interested in receiving electronic files for possible use as publicity tools. The following files are available from McFarland upon request:

1. Hi-Res Cover Image (TIF)
2. Flyer (PDF)
3. Bookmark (PDF)
4. Poster (PDF)

Should you require any of those electronic files, please contact me at khamby@mcfarlandpub.com.

Sincerely,
Kristal Hamby
